I. Admissions and General Information

Students seeking state certification in teaching social studies must complete a major in one of the following departments:

- Africana Studies Economics Political Science
 Anthropology History Sociology

In addition to an appropriate major, applicants must

- have an overall GPA of 3.0 or better based on at least 12 credits taken at Stony Brook. Incoming transfer students will be evaluated on the basis of the GPA from their prior institution.
- have taken either HIS 101 or 102 and either HIS 103 or 104 (or equivalent courses) and
- have satisfied at least three of the required areas of study with a B or better. HIS 101/102 and HIS 103/104 may be used to satisfy this admission requirement.

All courses must be taken for a letter grade and passed with a C or better. Students must have at least a 3.0 overall GPA and have completed all program requirements (both content and pedagogy) and pass an exit interview to qualify for student teaching. For further information, see the D-TALE Guide to Teacher Education (https://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/dtale/resources/for_students.php)

II. Professional Education Requirements

The methods courses must be taken sequentially. Students must earn a C or better in these two courses and perform satisfactorily on course-based assessments in order to remain in good standing and progress to the next course in the sequence. The field experience courses must be taken concurrently with the methods courses, and students will be required to repeat both courses if requirements for either course are not met.

III. Other Program and Certification Requirements

1. All students are required to pass a culminating interview before being accepted for student teaching. The interview will cover knowledge of content, pedagogy, and dispositions. The interview can be repeated, though remedial work may be required.
2. Students must complete a minimum of 48 credits in history and the social sciences.
3. Foreign language requirement. Information is here:
https://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/dtale/guide/dtale_program_requirements/foreign_lang_requirement.php
4. For initial certification, students must pass the EAS and the CST and complete seminars in child abuse, violence prevention, bullying, and substance abuse; the substance abuse workshop is also required for graduation.
5. Students should be fingerprinted as early as possible as schools now require fingerprints for student teaching. To obtain a NY teaching license, individuals must either be a US citizen or a legal resident.

It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all degree requirements (both SBC as well as major) and Social Studies Education Program requirements are met. Be sure to review this Advising Worksheet every semester to ensure you are satisfying the program requirements.

IV. Content Area Requirements: choose one in each area

(While it may be possible to substitute other courses for those listed below it is imperative that you confer with the Program Director in advance.)
