

Walk Flushing's immigrant history with us!

Walk This Way

Flushing and the Korean American Community

Flushing has been a vital center for the NY/NJ Korean American Community over the past 50 years. The Center for Korean Studies has organized a walking tour to explore Flushing's historical transformation as a central locus for the immigrant communities as their presence has influenced the economic, social, cultural, and religious tapestry of the larger, mainstream society.

Meeting Place:

The Giving Church of New York
145-15 Bayside Avenue
Flushing, NY 11354

Date:

Friday, October 20, 2017

Time:

1:00PM-3:30PM

Tour Guide:

Rev. Dr. Eun Joo Kim

Our local specialist, Dr. Kim, will be introducing us to the Korean American community through local history and showing us important community locations, such as The Giving Church of New York, the H-Mart on Union Street, the MinKwon Center for Community Action, Kum Gang San Restaurant, and Bandi Books.
