

THE CENTER FOR KOREAN STUDIES

IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE

Korean Studies Graduate Scholarships for Research

THIS SCHOLARSHIP AIMS TO ENCOURAGE GRADUATE-LEVEL RESEARCH AND DIALOGUES ON KOREA-RELATED TOPICS AT STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY. TWO AWARDS ARE OPEN THIS SPRING. THEY ARE RENEWABLE. THE SCHOLARSHIP AWARDEES WILL BE INVITED TO A SEMINAR IN KOREAN STUDIES TO PRESENT THEIR RESEARCH.

Eligibility: Full-time MA or Ph.D. students currently enrolled in the fields of humanities, social sciences, and arts in Stony Brook University. Students whose main research project includes topics related to Korea. International students are also eligible.

Award: $3,000 per award

Documents to submit:

1. Cover letter
2. Completed Graduate Application form.
3. Curriculum vitae
4. Research statement (1000-1500 words)
5. Unofficial school transcript
6. A recommendation letter from the primary academic adviser

The recommendation letter should be emailed directly to Professor Sohn, heejeong.sohn@stonybrook.edu, by the recommender.

THE DEADLINE FOR THE APPLICATIONS: MARCH 16TH, 2020 (MONDAY)

Applications and all other supporting documents except the recommendation letters should be submitted to:

The Center for Korean studies, N5520 Melville Library

For questions, please contact sanghyeon.kim@stonybrook.edu