

Proposed Bylaws Change: Promotion and Tenure Standing Committee Membership
Presented to Senate Body on:
September 14, 2020
3:30PM-5:00PM

Current Language:

8.A. The Promotion and Tenure Committees (PTC) will provide recommendations on the following faculty appointments:

- i) promotions from Assistant to Associate Professor with tenure (PTCJ),
- ii) promotions from Associate to Full Professor and new appointments with tenure respectively (PTCS).

8.A.2 Except as noted below, the members of the members of the PTCJ will hold the rank of associate professor, and the members of the PTCS will hold the rank of full professor .

8.A.3 Both the PTCJ and PTCS committee will consist of 8 voting members that are elected tenured faculty.

A.4 two representatives each from:

- i) the humanities and fine arts (or one representative from HFA, one from University Libraries);
- ii) the social and behavioral sciences (or one representative from SBS, one from School of Journalism);
- iii) the natural sciences, such that one is from the biological or life sciences and one from physical sciences or mathematics;

8.A.5 one representative from School of Marine and Atmospheric Sciences ;

8.A.6 one voting, elected non-tenured tenure track faculty representative to serve on PTCJ, and one voting, elected associate faculty representative to serve on the PTCS.

- i) In case of a tie vote in PTCS, the Chair of PTCJ will be asked to participate to break the tie and vice-versa.
- ii) No committee shall have more than one representative from a single department.
- iii) The chairs of both committees shall serve on the Executive Committee of the Arts & Sciences Senate.

8.A.7 No person can be a member of the relevant committee in a year in which his/her candidacy for promotion or continuing appointment will be considered by the committee. If a member becomes such a candidate, s/he must switch with a member from the other committee or resign from the committee.

Proposed Language Revision:

[Proposed Additions in Red; Deletions have been Struck Through]

8.A. The Promotion and Tenure Committees (PTC) will provide recommendations on the following faculty appointments:

- i) promotions from Assistant to Associate Professor with tenure (PTCJ),
- ii) promotions from Associate to Full Professor and new appointments with tenure respectively (PTCS).

8.A.2 Except as noted below, the members of the members of the PTCJ will hold the rank of associate professor, and the members of the PTCS will hold the rank of full professor .

8.A.3 Both the PTCJ and PTCS committee will consist of 8 voting members that are elected tenured faculty.

A.4 two representatives each from:

- i) the humanities and fine arts (or one representative from HFA, one from University Libraries);
- ii) the social and behavioral sciences (or one representative from SBS, one from School of Journalism);
- iii) the natural sciences, such that one is from the biological or life sciences and one from physical sciences or mathematics;

~~8.A.5 one representative from School of Marine and Atmospheric Sciences ;~~

~~8.A.6~~ 8.A.5 one voting, elected non-tenured tenure track faculty representative to serve on PTCJ, and one voting, elected associate faculty representative to serve on the PTCS.

- i) In case of a tie vote in PTCS, the Chair of PTCJ will be asked to participate to break the tie and vice-versa.
- ii) No committee shall have more than one representative from a single department.
- iii) The chairs of both committees shall serve on the Executive Committee of the Arts & Sciences Senate.

~~8.A.7~~ 8.A.6 No person can be a member of the relevant committee in a year in which his/her candidacy for promotion or continuing appointment will be considered by the committee. If a member becomes such a candidate, s/he must switch with a member from the other committee or resign from the committee.

Revised Language:

[If accepted]

8.A. The Promotion and Tenure Committees (PTC) will provide recommendations on the following faculty appointments:

- i) promotions from Assistant to Associate Professor with tenure (PTCJ),
- ii) promotions from Associate to Full Professor and new appointments with tenure respectively (PTCS).

8.A.2 Except as noted below, the members of the members of the PTCJ will hold the rank of associate professor, and the members of the PTCS will hold the rank of full professor .

8.A.3 Both the PTCJ and PTCS committee will consist of 8 voting members that are elected tenured faculty.

A.4 two representatives each from:

- i) the humanities and fine arts (or one representative from HFA, one from University Libraries);
- ii) the social and behavioral sciences (or one representative from SBS, one from School of Journalism);
- iii) the natural sciences, such that one is from the biological or life sciences and one from physical sciences or mathematics;

8.A.5 one voting, elected non-tenured tenure track faculty representative to serve on PTCJ, and one voting, elected associate faculty representative to serve on the PTCS.

i) In case of a tie vote in PTCS, the Chair of PTCJ will be asked to participate to break the tie and vice-versa.

ii) No committee shall have more than one representative from a single department.

iii) The chairs of both committees shall serve on the Executive Committee of the Arts & Sciences Senate.

8.A.6 No person can be a member of the relevant committee in a year in which his/her candidacy for promotion or continuing appointment will be considered by the committee. If a member becomes such a candidate, s/he must switch with a member from the other committee or resign from the committee.